

UNITED STATES SOLELY FOR GERMAN RIGHTS

NEUTRAL CAN BE NEUTRAL NO MORE

PRIMARIES' DATE IN GEORGIA FIXED BY HOUSE MEASURE

General Judiciary Committee No. 1 Favors Bill Calling for Vote on Second Wednesday in September.

ROTATION OF JUDGES MEETS WITH FAVOR

Ways and Means Committee to Pass on Anti-Tipping Bill—Subcommittee Gets Divorce Bills.

The date for all democratic primaries is set for the second Wednesday in September in a house bill reported favorably by the general judiciary committee No. 1 Friday.

The bill provides that instead of the state executive committee setting a date for such a primary it shall be set by law on the date named.

This will cover the primary for United States senators, governor, state-house officers, congressmen, justices of the supreme court and court of appeals, superior court judges and solicitors general.

It is believed the bill will pass the house and the senate.

ANTI-TIPPING MEASURE.

Although the anti-tipping bill failed in the judiciary committee Friday afternoon, the measure may not be dead, as that committee recommended to the ways and means committee a measure which may have a better effect.

The bill made it a misdemeanor for any person in railroad trains or hotels to receive a tip. The committee at first voted for it, but reconsidered.

It was then decided to ask the ways and means committee to present a bill providing for a tax on all railroads and hotels that permitted tipping.

ROTATION OF JUDGES.

A bill providing for the rotation of the superior court judges was reported favorably by the judiciary committee No. 1, of the house, Friday.

Fulton and Chatham counties were exempted.

Under the law the state will be divided into four sections and the superior court judges will rotate in their respective sections.

The bill was framed by Representative Stark, of Jackson county. He says that he does not think there will be any serious opposition to the bill in either the house or the senate.

LIABILITY BILL ADVISED.

Four important bills were acted upon by the general judiciary committee No. 2, of the house, Friday.

The fellow servant liability bill was reported upon adversely. The bill aimed to make corporations and companies liable for personal injuries to an employee caused by the negligence of a fellow employee.

The committee acted favorably upon a bill making it a misdemeanor for any person to bring stolen property into the state.

A bill to provide for uniform execution of all telephone and electric poles on public highways was reported adversely.

A bill making it a misdemeanor for any person to falsely represent himself as a deaf, blind, dumb or lame was reported adversely, because the committee thought such an offense was already covered by the law against cheating and swindling.

DIVORCE BILLS.

The house committee on general judiciary No. 1 decided Friday to refer to a subcommittee bills dealing with the divorce laws. There have been some twenty such bills dealing with all phases of the divorce law. The special committee will report some time next week.

Thief Plays Havoc In Residence Where Money Was Scarce

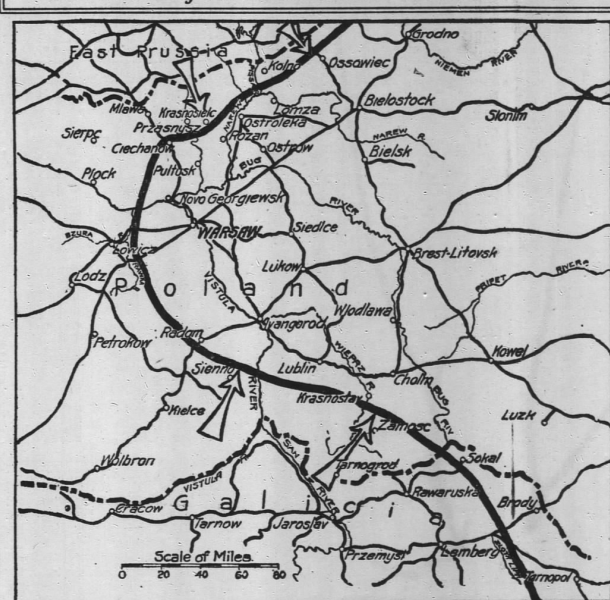

"Lookout, and be sure that you leave more than a fifty-cent piece for these Atlanta burglars when you leave your house unguarded," is the warning sent out by Mrs. S. P. Baldwin, of No. 6 West 2nd avenue, last night, when she returned home about 7 o'clock to find that a burglar had entered her house, ransacked it and, disappointed at finding only 50 cents, had split butt, over the house.

Not satisfied with this he took her rings and ripped open the bed linen and dining room linen to small fragments. In the bed room he also ripped the mattresses on the beds.

Mrs. Baldwin left her house about 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon for a walk in West End Park, which is near her home.

Officers Haslett and Evans answered her call for the police.

Millions of Men in Battle on East Front

BIG OFFENSIVE MOVEMENT AGAINST RUSSIA.

The limits of space make it impossible to show the full length of the eastern battle line. It extends to a point far north of Grodno and takes in the Baltic provinces of Russia. Between 5,000,000 and 7,000,000 men are involved. Three main offensive movements are shown, however. The one striking toward Ostrow has for its object the Bobr and Vistula. The advance, which has passed south of Przemysl, has backed the Russians up against the Narew, and a crossing there would give the Germans a chance to cut communications with Warsaw. The third, which is going north between Lublin and Chelm, has also for its object the cutting off of communications with Warsaw by the capture of important railroads. Further to the south is the army of General von Linzinger and the Austrians, which are keeping Bukovina clear for the present.

Teuton Armies Driving Attacks Against Warsaw And Making Some Gains

Advances, However, Are Slight, as the Russian Forces Are Putting Up a Stubborn Defense.

London, July 23.—The Austrians and Germans are driving their attacks against the Russian armies defending Warsaw without let-up and at some points they report advances.

The attackers are operating, however, through country which the retreating troops have laid waste and where poor roads are little suited for heavy artillery movements necessary for bombardment of the great fortresses that bar the way.

The decisive actions, therefore, are not expected until the day after tomorrow the battle between the Vistula and the Bug rivers, where the German field marshal, Von Mackensen's army is operating.

Saturday is marketing day in Atlanta. The buying of foodstuffs is one of the important duties to be attended to.

Atlanta's best groceries and markets have learned by experience that thousands of eyes scan page two of the Saturday Constitution for opportunities to purchase certain articles of food. They tell their story each week on page two in order to reach these thousands of eyes.

Are you, Mr. Merchant, taking advantage of this service and getting your share of the business?

Constitution advertising brings the largest percentage of results because it reaches the people who have money to spend and spend it for dependable merchandise.

Minister Is Charged With Murdering Man Over 45 Years Ago

Rev. W. H. McCart, Accused of Killing Monroe Smith, Jailed in Newton County While Visiting Relatives.

Covington, Ga., July 23.—(Special.)—Accused of killing Monroe Smith over forty-five years ago, Rev. W. H. McCart is held for trial in the Newton county jail here on a charge of murder.

McCart, who has been living in the west since the killing, was recognized and arrested during a visit to relatives in the western part of Newton county. The accused man became a minister after leaving Georgia. He has an attractive manner and talks interestingly of his travels.

The killing of Smith resulted, it is said, from an alleged attack on Mrs. McCart, mother of the man charged with the murder. It is reported that Smith, struck Mrs. McCart a day or two before the killing.

The arrest has created a sensation. Older citizens of the county who recall the affair offered somewhat as to details. The tragedy occurred so long ago that few remember the exact circumstances.

BODY OF UNKNOWN WHITE BOY FOUND IN TUGALOO RIVER

Hartwell, Ga., July 23.—(Special.)—The body of an unknown white boy about 13 years old with light hair was recovered this morning from the Tugaloo river. It is reported that Sheriff A. S. Johnson, the body was unclotted and it is presumed that the youth was drowned while in swimming.

The body was first discovered washed up on a raft by a party of men fishing, who notified the sheriff. There have been no reports of drownings in the river recently and the sheriff is at a loss as to identifying the body. The boy has probably been dead for about two days.

NOTE HAS FORCE OF ULTIMATUM, EDITORS ASSERT

But Carries No Bellicose Threat—American Press Almost Unit in Indorsing Reply—Very Discordant Note Sounded by Some of the German-American Editors, Who Bitterly Attack President Wilson.

Below will be found the comment of the press of the United States on the American note to Germany. The press is almost a unit in indorsing the note, especially its firmness and its plainness.

As the Memphis Commercial-Appeal says, "The note has the force of an ultimatum without bellicose threat."

A discordant note is sounded by the few German-American papers. One of these, the Illinois Staats-Zeitung, published at Chicago, charges that the United States government "had a secret agreement with England to force a break with Germany," and expresses the hope that "Germany will not blame the people for the present government action."

Chicago Herald: President Wilson's third note to the German government is a masterpiece of diplomacy. It is a masterpiece in the language which a self-respecting man uses to a friend whose acts have wronged him and in the language which will be thought, the heart of America. Come what may, the nation will stand upon its feet.

Globe-Democrat: The note briefly and clearly states the position of the United States. It is a masterpiece of diplomacy. It is a masterpiece in the language which a self-respecting man uses to a friend whose acts have wronged him and in the language which will be thought, the heart of America. Come what may, the nation will stand upon its feet.

TEXT OF AMERICAN NOTE DELIVERED TO GERMANY

Washington, July 24.—Following is the official text of the latest American note to Germany regarding submarine warfare, which was delivered to the foreign office at Berlin today by Ambassador Gerard:

The Secretary of State to Ambassador Gerard.—(Telegram.)—Department of State, Washington, July 21, 1915.—You are instructed to deliver textually the following note to the minister for foreign affairs:

The note of the Imperial German government dated the 8th of July, 1915, has received the careful consideration of the government of the United States and it regrets to be obliged to say that it has found it very unsatisfactory, because it fails to meet the real differences between the two governments and indicates no way in which the accepted principles of law and humanity may be applied in the grave matter in controversy, but proposes, on the contrary, arrangements for a partial suspension of those principles which virtually set them aside.

Illegality Admitted by Germany.

The government of the United States notes with satisfaction that the Imperial German government recognizes without reservation the validity of the principles insisted on in the several communications which this government had addressed to the Imperial German government with regard to its announcement of a war zone and the use of submarines against merchantmen on the high seas—the principle that the high seas are free, that the character and cargo of a merchantman must first be ascertained before she can lawfully be seized or destroyed, and that the lives of non-combatants may in no case be put in jeopardy unless the vessel resists or seeks to escape after being summoned to submit to examination; for a belligerent act of retaliation is per se an act beyond the law, and the defense of an act as retaliatory is an admission that it is illegal.

The government of the United States is, however, keenly disappointed to find that the Imperial German government regards itself as in large degree exempt from the obligation to observe these principles, even where neutral vessels are concerned, by what it believes the policy and practice of the government of Great Britain to be in the present war with regard to neutral commerce.

German Attack on Britain Irrelevant.

The Imperial German government will readily understand that the government of the United States cannot discuss the policy of the government of Great Britain with regard to neutral trade except with that government itself, and that it must regard the conduct of other belligerent governments as irrelevant to any discussion with the Imperial German government of what this government regards as grave and unjustifiable violations of the rights of American citizens by German naval commanders.

Illegal and inhuman acts, however justifiable they may be thought to be against an enemy who is believed to have acted in contravention of law and humanity, are manifestly indefensible when they deprive neutrals of their acknowledged rights, particularly when they violate the right to life itself. If the belligerent cannot retaliate against an enemy without injuring the lives of neutrals, as well as their property, humanity, as well as justice and a due regard for the dignity of neutral powers, should dictate that the practice be discontinued. If persisted in it would in such circumstances constitute an unpardonable offense against the sovereignty of the neutral nation affected.

No American Rights Can Be Abated.

The government of the United States is not unmindful of the extraordinary conditions created by this war or of the radical alterations of circumstance and method of attack produced by the use of instrumentalities of naval warfare which the nations of the world cannot have had in view when the existing rules of international law were formulated, and it is ready to make every reasonable allowance for these novel and unexpected aspects of war at sea; but it cannot consent to abate any essential or fundamental right of its people because of a mere alteration of circumstance. The rights of neutrals in time of war are based upon principle, not upon expediency, and the principles are immutable. It is the duty and obligation of belligerents to find a way to adapt the new circumstances to them.

The events of the past two months have clearly indicated that it is possible and practicable to conduct such submarine operations as have characterized the activity of the Imperial German navy within the so-called war zone in substantial accord with the accepted practices of regulated warfare. The whole world has looked on with interest and increasing satisfaction at the manifest possibility of that possibility by German naval commanders. It is manifestly possible, therefore, to lift the whole practice of submarine attack above the criticism which it has aroused and remove the chief cause of offense.

Disavowal and Reparation for Lusitania.

In view of the admission of illegality made by the Imperial government when it pleaded the right of retaliation in defense of its acts, and in view of the manifest possibility of conforming to the established rules of naval warfare, the government of the United States cannot believe that the Imperial government will longer refrain from disavowing the wanton act of its naval commander in sinking the Lusitania or from offering reparation for the American lives lost, so far as reparation can be made for a needless destruction of human life by an illegal act.

The government of the United States, while not indifferent to the friendly spirit in which it is made, cannot accept the suggestion of the Imperial government that certain vessels be designated and agreed upon which shall be free on the seas now illegally proscribed. The very agreement, by implication, subject other vessels to illegal attack and would be a curtailment and therefore an abandonment of the principles for which this government contends and which in times of calmer counsels every nation would concede as of course.

For the Freedom of the Seas.

The government of the United States and the Imperial German government are contending for the same great object, have long stood together in urging the very principles upon which the government of the United States now so solemnly insists. They are both contending for the freedom of the seas. The government of the United States will continue to contend for that freedom, from whatever quarter violated, without compromise and at any cost. It invites the practical cooperation of the Imperial German government at this time when co-operation is most necessary and this great common object be most strikingly and effectively achieved.

The Imperial German government expresses the hope that this object may be in some measure accomplished even before the present war ends. It can be. The government of the United States not only feels obliged to insist upon it, by whomsoever violated or ignored, in the protection of its own citizens, but is also deeply interested in seeing it made practicable between the belligerents themselves, and holds itself ready at any time to act as the common friend who may be privileged to suggest a way.

Solemn Warning Given Germany.

In the meantime the very value which this government sets upon the long and unbroken friendship between the people and government of the United States and the people and government of the German nation impels it to press very solemnly upon the Imperial German government the necessity for a scrupulous observance of neutral rights in this critical matter. Friendship itself prompts it to say to the Imperial government that repetition by the commanders of German naval vessels of acts in contravention of those rights may be regarded by the government of the United States, when they affect American citizens, as deliberately unfriendly.

ANOTHER VIOLATION WILL BE REGARDED AS DELIBERATELY UNFRIENDLY ACT

In Official and Diplomatic Quarters the Note Is Regarded as the Strongest and Most Emphatic Pronouncement Yet Made by United States.

UNITED STATES FIGHTS FOR FREEDOM OF SEAS WITHOUT COMPROMISE

And Fight Will Be Continued "At Any Cost." Sinking of the Lusitania Termed a Wanton and Illegal Act, and Germany Is Again Asked for Disavowal and Reparation—Note Concludes With Solemn Warning to Germany Not to Offend Again.

Washington, July 23.—The American note on submarine warfare, presented to Berlin today by Ambassador Gerard, was made public here tonight. It reveals that Germany has been informed it is the intention of the United States to regard as "deliberately unfriendly" any repetition by German naval commanders of acts in contravention of American rights.

The United States announces it will continue to contend for the freedom of the seas, "from whatever quarter violated, without compromise and at any cost."

NOTE REGARDED AS EMPHATIC.

In official and diplomatic quarters the communication was viewed as the strongest and most emphatic pronouncement by the Washington government since the beginning of its correspondence with the European belligerents.

President Wilson returned to Corning, N. H., tonight.

On the assumption that Germany adheres to the principle of the illegality of her practices by attempting to justify them as retaliatory moves against Great Britain, the United States expresses the belief that "Germany no longer will refrain from disavowing

CAPTOR IS CAPTURED
HERE HE GETS RANSOM

With $6,000 in Gold in Sight,
Abductor of Empey Is Taken by Cowboys.

Idaho Falls, Idaho, July 23.—Cowboys late tonight captured the abductor of Ernest Empey, a wealthy rancher who escaped several days ago and held for $6,000 ransom, according to a report received here. The bandit, it is said, came down from Sheep mountain at midnight and was taken.

Empey escaped late today as his captor slept in a hut on Sheep mountain, five miles from Empey's ranch, where he had been taken at the point of a rifle. According to a report from Montpelier, Empey recognized his abductor as a man employed on his ranch five years ago.

Six thousand dollars in gold was taken late today to the spot indicated by the abductor for payment tomorrow night for the release of the cattleman.

LAST DITCH FIGHT TO KEEP C. BECKER FROM DEATH CHAIR

Condemned Man's Attorneys Secure Order Requiring State to Show Why a New Trial Should Not Be Granted.

BLAME FOR THE MURDER SHIFTED TO SULLIVAN

Attorneys Allege That Becker Has Placed Own Foot on Scaffold by Keeping Promise to Shield the Late New York Leader.

New York, July 23.—An order directing the state to show cause why a motion for a new trial should not be granted to Charles Becker, sentenced to die Wednesday, was signed by Supreme Court Justice Pathin here today. The order is returnable Monday, in the supreme court before Justice Ford. District Attorney Charles A. Perkins will oppose the motion.

The last effort to save the life of the former police lieutenant, twice convicted for instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was made by W. Bourke Cockran, his chief counsel, who placed before Justice Pathin affidavits to which he said was newly discovered evidence.

Becker willing to be executed. Stating that by his silence in keeping a promise to shield the late Timothy D. Sullivan, Becker "has placed his own foot on the scaffold," Cockran declared that Becker was willing to face a cross-examination without any limitations or imposing any conditions on the state.

In the petition are affidavits from three attorneys associated at various times with Becker's defense, which show that they never had known of Sullivan's interest in Rosenthal, as revealed in Becker's appeal to Governor Whitman and later substantiated by Harry Applebaum, Sullivan's secretary.

An affidavit from Rev. James B. Curry, who frequently saw Becker in the Tombs, is embodied in the petition. Curry swore that two years ago Becker confided to him the same story he gave out in his appeal to the governor. Father Curry said he would persuade Becker to tell his counsel about Sullivan, but he refused.

Jack Rose's statement confirming Becker's story about meeting Sullivan and Applebaum at the circle theater 24 hours before the murder of Rosenthal, is in the new evidence. Rose, detailing his movements, in the two Becker trials never mentioned this, but testified that at the time he was in his house.

Cockran said as Sullivan made no affidavit before he died he would ask Justice Ford to cite Harry Applebaum so that he may be questioned as to the bribery fund Becker said was collected to spirit Rosenthal from the jurisdiction of the state.

Edward Ginty, formerly a deputy sheriff, in an affidavit, says that Rose told him that Rosenthal should not have been killed and that he had $5,000 to give the gambler to leave town. Benjamin H. Kaufman made an affidavit that he had been with Rosenthal on the night before the shooting and that Rosenthal told him that next day he would have $15,000 and was going away.

Says Becker was "Framed Up." In another affidavit Louis Harris, a gambler, said that Rose confided to him that Becker was "framed up." Harris reported that Becker had a weak head, framed Becker because "Whitman wanted some one" and that he "knew him better."

A letter from Joseph Murphy, a prisoner in the Tombs in July, 1912, says he heard Webster, Rose and Sullivan in cells adjoining, conspiring to "frame Becker."

Another letter is from Harford T. Marshall, a defense attorney. Marshall says he refused to act as counsel for Becker when Webster, Rose and Sullivan were in the district attorney's office as to the guilt of Rose, Vallon and Webster and claim that now he cannot get an unprejudiced review of his case by the governor, for the man who prosecuted him is now the chief executive.

MRS. CARROLL LOSES POLICE COURT FIGHT

The trial of Mrs. B. E. Carroll, of 62 Walton street, a boarding house, which has occupied the attention of Recorder George E. Johnson since beginning last Saturday, and having ended last night when Judge Johnson fourfold, would have been continued over on the specific charge of running a disorderly house.

Dr. Horace Grant, well-known renting agent, testified that No. 62 Walton was the worst disorderly house that he had ever seen in Atlanta, even when the "red light" district was in its heyday.

Mrs. Carroll's home was not assessed last night by Judge Johnson, postponement stated to the court that they were not prepared to give bond, having expected an acquittal at the hands of the court. Judge Johnson will assess her bond today.

A Distinguished Little Group of

Hats For Early Fall

The Most Charming Models
Imaginable

An air of freshness and newness permeates the Millinery Section.

A just-arrived group of fall hats brings into prominence those elements of fashion that you are going to hear more about, quite a bit more—as the season grows older.

We speak of

The Silk and Panne Combinations, The Silk and Plush Combinations

in black, black-and-white and crow blue.

But the point you are going to notice at once is the chaste grace of line, the unusual trimness and smartness of the tailored hats which extends not only to the lines of the "shape" but to the bows and the wings and feathers. Everything looks so neat—the small hats, the hats of medium size, the large saloons.

the people of the Mississippi valley states, who have already contributed $75,000,000 toward it and are now adding another $25,000,000 to that.

The people living in the territory affected are not asking for reclamation. They are ready and willing to take care of their future themselves. All they ask of the government is that it take upon itself the work of confining the Mississippi within its banks and preventing the devastating floods which have been so destructive to life and property. All of the national political parties believe it is distinctly a federal problem, and President Wilson himself strongly favors it.

It remains simply a question for congress. The method of preventing floods in the Mississippi valley is a problem whose solution has already been attained. United States army engineers have completed plans showing conclusively that the carrying out of the levee system is the only simple and reliable means of protecting the valley and at the same time improving the river channel. Whatever is to be done in the matter must be done by congress. The time has come when congress can well afford to take this step, conscious of the fact that in so doing its action will meet with general public approval.

A FAVOR FROM ENGLAND.

We have been so busy insisting that England shall withdraw her illegal blockade against neutral commerce brought about by the war, that we have not been inclined to overlook the small favors England may render us.

Undoubtedly England has rendered us a favor in placing an embargo upon the exportation of her provisions of jute and jute bagging. While cotton would undoubtedly have supplanted jute for wrapping and baling purposes in the course of time, the embargo will now come more quickly.

Commending the action of the English government in the matter of the jute embargo, Fire and Fabric, a Boston textile publication, makes this comment:

"We have an abundance of short and medium staple cotton and are in need of practically wasted. Such cotton would be of great value to the jute industry, which is now covered with jute, and the textile industry of new countries and the cotton industry of the United States. The embargo is a most timely and wise move, and it is to be hoped that it will be maintained for some time to come."

It is well for us, no doubt, that England has declared this embargo. We shall come more quickly to the adaptation of cotton to uses which the jute would long ago have been put to. And once it has begun, there will be no return to jute.

A RECORD WORTH WHILE.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, the Southern Railway company set a record worth while. The company has been in the business of transporting passengers and freight for over a century, and its record for the year ending June 30, 1915, is a record worth while.

There has been a disposition for some years past to "take it out on the railroads." They have gotten their full share of the knocks and the criticism, and sometimes more. On some occasions it was deserved and on others probably not.

IMPORTANT BILLS PASSED BY SENATE

Walker Measure Providing for Prompt Payment of Teachers Adopted.

TEACHERS' BILL ADVANTAGES. The plan to pay Georgia's school teachers promptly does away with the old system of not paying them until the next year. The plan is a year overdue. Under the Walker bill the county boards of education or school commissioners can convert into cash the warrants issued by the governor monthly. The benefit, however, is twofold, providing not only for prompt payment, but also for a lower rate of interest to be paid by the counties to the bank that converts the warrants into cash. This latter advantage would be accomplished by the increased safety and desirability of the warrants issued under the new plan, as approved by the federal reserve bank and by the National Park bank, the state's fiscal agent. New York Senator Walker has predicted that this latter advantage would be as low as a four per cent. rate, instead of the present rate of annual saving of $40,000 to the state.

The senate yesterday morning passed two important bills. One was the Walker bill, providing for the prompt payment of school teachers, whereby arrangements will be made with banks to honor the warrants of the governor drawn upon the state treasury for the payment of the teachers, when the warrants are received in the state treasury from the school boards.

The other bill provided for the office state auditor, which was passed with a number of amendments. The bill is amended.

The principal amendments were three offered, respectively, by Senators Boykin, Pickett and K. H. Pickett. An amendment by Senator Boykin, which was adopted, provided that the auditor shall have one assistant and one clerk instead of two assistants and one clerk.

An amendment by Senator Pickett, of the clerk instead of the auditor, his assistant and his clerk at $1,500 and $400 per annum, respectively.

An amendment by Senator Pickett, of the auditor, which was adopted, provided that the auditor shall have one assistant and one clerk at $1,500 and $400 per annum, respectively.

When the senate adjourned the members were debating the bill. The appropriation to be donated to the state agricultural school, under Senator McCrory's plea for a liberal appropriation, but several members voted against such generosity.

The senate will meet again Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

STATE PRISON FARM PROBED AGAIN TODAY

Great Interest in the Governor's Visit—Frank's Condition Continues to Improve.

Milledgeville, Ga., July 23.—(Special.) Chairman R. E. Davidson arrived tonight by auto from his home in Greece county and the state farm. His visit will begin early tomorrow, shortly after the arrival time of the train from Macon with Governor Harris and Prison Commissioners E. L. Rainey and T. E. Patterson.

The plan for the investigation is not given out, but it is certain that besides inquiring into details of the assault upon Leo M. Frank, the charges made by Joe Johnson, will be taken up, item by item.

Frank is continually improving. He had a nice, comfortable meal at 7 o'clock this morning, made an examination of his wound. They intend to go in with them Dr. A. W. Findley, of Cave Springs, representative from Floyd county, who was in attendance at the time, being in Milledgeville as a member of the legislature, and is visiting the state sanitarium today.

Dr. Findley stays the night, looking to meet from either end, but in the middle it looks like a case of irritation and pus present, that Frank has a cough, and that he is not well. For that reason he did not get out of bed today.

In response to how he felt, Frank said very few. Dr. Findley stated that if everything could be arranged, he would never put an end to the rumor that Frank was not well, and that the wound was little more and very deep.

Fort Worth Bank Closes.

Fort Worth, Texas, July 23.—The Fort Worth Savings Bank and Trust company, capitalised at $210,000, closed its doors today. W. D. Deddens, of Fort Worth, was appointed receiver. It was stated that the bank's deposits of approximately $400,000.

AFFECTING SCENES MARK DEBATE OVER PENSIONS

House Unanimously Agrees on Increase on Sliding Scale.

The confederate veterans of Georgia won a victory yesterday in the house of representatives when a bill to increase their pensions was passed.

There was no fight on the bill, but a few members of the house, thinking of the financial condition of the state, were inclined to go a little slow in the expenditures.

The bill was one of the most affecting scenes ever witnessed in the house. Many of the old veterans, who are members, wept when they heard their cause championed by the confederates and the sons of veterans.

A striking feature of the debate was the speech by Mr. Wohlwendner, of Muscogee, who is a southerner by birth. His speech was one of the strongest appeals made for an increase of the pension.

The annual pension for a veteran is now $50 a year. The bill as passed made the pension as follows:

For the year 1915, $50; for 1916, $55; for 1917, $60; for 1918, $65; for 1919, $70; for 1920, $75; for 1921, $80; for 1922, $85; for 1923, $90; for 1924, $95; for 1925, $100.

This scale was agreed upon under an amendment offered by Mr. Eiders, of Tattall.

The first speech was made by Mr. Dratt, of Glynn, a veteran, who spoke of the hardships of the war and of the men of the south went out to fight for their country. As he spoke his voice was frequently broken as he tried to keep back the tears.

Mr. Wohlwendner, of Muscogee, spoke next, and he said that he was not of the south by birth, but he had married a southern woman, and he was rather every other department of the state. He said that he was a southerner by birth, and he was a southerner by heart.

Flag League Pennant Given
To Valdosta by Forfeit; Brunswick Players Strike

team at their own expense in the interim. Some of the players left in protest.

Shortly before game time Friday, a delegation of the players approached President Hopkirk of the Brunswick club, insisting that he guarantee their salaries. Hopkirk refused and they refused to play and the game was forfeited.

The Brunswick club is due the players about $350. This amount, the club officials say, will be paid out of the Brunswick club's share from the post-season series, which they were to receive. The club is also to add to this the players' percentage of the receipts.

Brunswick fans believe that had the players finished the series, that they would have won in addition to their share of the post-season games.

Because of the loss of the series, Valosta won two and Brunswick one, the latter being the only team to do so to win the pennant, being declared forfeited to the Valosta club.
